

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO JOB SEEKERS

We have been made aware of an online recruitment fraud using fake Dantec Dynamics Limited (“Dantec”) job offers and postings to deceive and harm job seekers.

The activity that we are aware of involves individuals posing as a Dantec recruiter, offering job seekers a position called “Financier Agent,” and asking the candidates to process payments, purportedly on behalf of Dantec.

These offers are fraudulent and the individuals have no affiliation with Dantec.

We take this matter very seriously and want you to be aware that although Dantec does engage legitimate recruiters from time to time, our recruiters do not hire individuals over email and only refer candidates to Dantec for local, in-person interviews. Dantec also does not ask its employees to process payments on its behalf.

We strongly recommend that you do not respond to anyone making unsolicited or suspicious offers of employment on behalf of Dantec.

If you have any additional questions you may also contact Dantec directly at UK@dantecdynamics.com.

If you are interested in working with Dantec, a current listing of legitimate opportunities, along with application instructions, can be found at www.dantecdynamics.com/careers.
